WILL HOLD
A BANQUETCharleroi Business
Men's Association Ar-
range Annual Affair

FAVORS CURB MARKET

Banquet affairs, the matter of equalizing the tax assessment, and the proposed curb market occupied the attention of the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their regular meeting Thursday night. It was arranged to hold the annual banquet of the association on next Friday night, April 12. Gov. J. K. Tener will probably be home on that date to attend the affair. Other guests will be invited, among them probably the county commissioners, the Washington county judges and other county officials, J. Denny O'Neil, an Allegheny county commissioner and some of the prominent railroad officials. It is expected that the banquet will be held at the Elks' Home. The executive committee, consisting of W. R. Gaut, C. O. Frye, and John B. Schafer will have the arrangements for the affair in charge.

The Business Men's Association instructed the municipal committee to work conjunctively with council in securing a location for the proposed curb market. This market will be started just as soon as possible. Frank Bly, Dr. H. J. Repman, R. H. Rush, C. R. Perigrine and William Milklin are the members of the committee. Farmers have stated that they are interested and it is probable a meeting will be arranged with them by a committee.

The association took up the discussion of the more equitable assessment of taxes. A new plan is proposed which would require a new law, constituting a local board empowered to act as the board of appeals. Now the county commissioners act in that capacity all over the county. This is one matter that will probably be threshed out at the banquet to be held next Friday. If it is deemed advisable a new law will be urged.

Free Electric Show.

Through the combined efforts of the various Electric jobbers and manufacturers in Pittsburgh and vicinity and the West Penn Electric company a big free Electric show will be given at the Charleroi Basket Ball Hall beginning Monday, April 8 and running the entire week. This show has been given in both Connellsville and Greensburg and attracted thousands of people. This demonstration will give to the people of Charleroi and vicinity a chance to see electrical appliances practically demonstrated at absolutely no cost to the people. The hall will be a maze of electric lights as well as the streets leading to it. This requires an immense amount of work and a large force are now working on the construction of booths, equipments and etc.

Notice:

Bids will be received by the Borough Clerk for gathering, hauling and disposal of Borough garbage until Tuesday, April 16th. Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Article of agreement can be seen at the clerk's office

The meetings will be held at the First Christian church, where supper will be taken by the county and district committees at 6 o'clock. The supper will be provided by the ladies of the Christian church.

It is expected that all members of the county committee will be here. From present plans the most successful convention ever held by the county association is indicated, and elaborate arrangements are necessary.

ARRANGE
FOR SHOWWest Penn Electric
Company to Show
Uses of Electricity

TO CONTINUE ONE WEEK

Beginning next Monday and continuing until Saturday inclusive, an electrical show will be held by the West Penn Electric company at the Charleroi rink. All the latest electrical appliances of similar kind to those which attracted so much attention at the Pittsburgh Exposition last fall will be exhibited.

Edwin Mandeville of Connellsville was here this morning in the interests of the show, which will be free to the people. The use of various domestic appliances operated by electricity and the wonders of the age, which have their origin due to the inventive ability of some of the most noted workers with electricity are to be demonstrated.

Special representatives of the company from Connellsville will be here to conduct the show, which will be for the entire Monongahela valley.

INTEREST GROWING
IN MARRON LECTURE

Interest is growing in the lecture for men to be given by John Marron, Esq., at Pittsburgh at School Hall next Thursday. The committee of the Knights of Columbus, which has arrangements for the affair in charge are working hard to make the affair a success. The lecture will be free to men and tickets of invitation are being distributed.

Mr. Marron is one of the leading civic workers of Pittsburgh. He is particularly well fitted to give a lecture on the subject given.

MEMORABLE DAY
AT CHURCHESSolemn Services Are Held
in Catholic and Some of
Protestant Churches

Throughout Christendom today is being commemorated the great tragedy of Calvary. Catholic and Protestant churches are holding special services. In Charleroi the schools are closed and the banks are observing the day as a legal holiday.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church today the mass of the presanctified was celebrated. According to custom prayers were publicly said for all persons, because it was on this day that Christ died in atonement for the sins of the world. The unveiling of the cross and adoration by the people was a solemn ceremony this morning at 8 o'clock. Tonight at 8 o'clock the sermon of the passion will be delivered.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Episcopal church Good Friday was observed by morning prayer, litany and sermon, and this afternoon at 4 o'clock evening prayer will be said. At Christ Lutheran church services will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

On Holy Saturday will occur at St. Jerome's church the blessing of the Paschal candle and the blessing of the baptismal waters, signifying the various prophecies. At the Episcopal church the sacrament of holy baptism will be administered in the church in the evening.

THOUSANDS ATTEND
NEW STORE OPENING

Attracted by the beautiful exterior of the store, by alluring music and by the offer of carnations or tulips to every visitor, between 4,000 and 5,000 persons including many from out of town attended the opening Thursday afternoon and evening of the new shoe house of Riggs & Stech, on McKean avenue. No sales were made Thursday. Twenty-eight hundred flowers were given as souvenirs and the supply was not sufficient to satisfy the demand. An orchestra of five pieces rendered music afternoon and evening. Riggs and Stech have prepared a beautiful store. They will handle a line of shoes made especially for them. At different times during the opening a quartet of young men rendered vocal selections to the accompaniment of the orchestra, which was greatly enjoyed by the big crowds in attendance. The new firm began doing business today.

Bazaar Two Days.

The Baptist church will hold an Easter bazaar Friday afternoon and Saturday in the store room at 517 Fallowfield avenue. Fancy work, aprons, etc., and home made candy and cakes will be sold.

ARRAIGNS CLUBS
WITH SIDEBOARDEvangelist Denounces Organization Existing Largely For Social Part

Clubs that have sideboards as fixtures came in for a bitter denunciation Thursday night at the instance of Rev. D. L. Schutz, who is holding evangelistic services at the First Baptist church.

"A great many men wouldn't belong to these drinking clubs were it not for the social part," he declared. Many are drawn in either for a good time or for the insurance part, without considering the institutions are nothing but instruments for the destruction of the souls of their fellow men was in effect his statement. "Some men who are members of churches go into these clubs for the good time they get out of it. I'd rather men would go openly to the barroom and be true to their colors," said Rev. Schultz.

Rev. Schultz preached on the text, "And thou shalt call his name Jesus, for He shall save people from their sins." He said that Jesus wouldn't treat the fallen the way some of us do. Rather he would sympathize with them and help them. Miss Ida Fleischer, the blind singer, ended her work here Thursday night.

INFANT KEEPS
DEPUTIES BUSY

Little Tommy Samon, a diminutive specimen of humanity of Slavic origin created considerable consternation about the county jail yesterday afternoon. Big eyed and presumably wondering in his infant mind, young Tommy appeared at the bastille in the arms of his mother, Mrs. John Samon who comes from near McDonald and who was sent to jail at Washington to await the action of court on charges of selling liquor without license and on Sunday.

Tommy is the first baby received at the county jail in the year of grace, 1912, and his arrival caused commotion among the new deputies, none of whom feels ready to qualify as head of a children's home. After the mother and he infant were made comfortable in the women's quarters the officials at the jail made frequent trips to that part of the bastille to inquire after the welfare of the small charge of the county and it was determined that for a few days at least it would be the special duty of Deputy George Hornbake to see that young Tommy wanted for nothing.

An effort will probably be made to effect some arrangement by which Tommy and his mother may be released from jail as the baby is looked on as more of a charge than all the 80 odd adult prisoners now incarcerated.

O'Leary Not
Parole StarElco Man Said to Have Broken Provisions Set by
The Court

Constable W. S. Conway of Long Branch borough took Jerry O'Leary of Elco to Washington Thursday on a bench warrant issued out of the court of quarter sessions at the instance of District Attorney Richard G. Miller for breaking the provisions of his parole. He was paroled September 8, last and promised to refrain from drink for one year. He broke his promise and got drunk and "tore" things up in general in the river section.

Judge McIlvaine asked the prisoner if he had anything to say to justify his conduct and he replied that it was simply an old temptation and he could not resist it. The court ordered the sentence of last year carried out costs, a fine of $1 and three months to jail.

CORONER
REPORTSInvestigates Death of Eighteen Persons During Month

TWO DIE IN CHARLEROI

The report of Coroner James T. Heffran for the month of March shows 18 sudden deaths. Of this number 11 are of American extraction, two of Slavish, two of Russian and one each of Swedish, Austrian and Polish. Of the whole number nine were married, seven were single one was divorced and another was a widower. Eight were killed in the coal mines, two were suicide, five died from natural causes, one from burns, one from poison and one from falling into a well. The occupation of nine was that of mining, there was one laborer, three farmers, one painter, one domestic and one foreman. There were 17 whites and one negro.

Two of the deaths were in Charleroi. Anna Krivenick, aged 17, of Charleroi, of Slavish extraction and a domestic, died at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital from burns, March 7. She had attempted to light the gas in a bath room and with one match she had failed to ignite the gas. She went for another match, failing to turn the gas off. In the meantime the room filled up with the fluid. She came back and ignited another match which caused an explosion.

Robert I. Duvall of Charleroi, aged 39, divorced, American, and a painter died in the Monessen General hospital from an attack of apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital from the Charleroi lockup unconscious.

FEEHAN
ELECTEDTabulation of Votes—
Show District President is Returned

ENTIRE TICKET ELECTED

After a most stormy session at the district convention of the United Mine Workers at Pittsburgh Thursday, the result of the referendum vote of the miners was announced, which gave President Francis Feehan a majority, as well as the balance of the candidates who were in accord with him and his policies. In other words, the entire Feehan ticket was elected. At times it was hard to preserve order, and proceedings were repeatedly interrupted.

The majority report of the referendum not signed by Tellers John Fagan and Thomas Kelly, declares Francis Feehan, re-elected district president by a majority of 583 1-2 votes. The minority report, is said, will declare Michael Halapy elected by 1,800 votes.

Michael Marraccini, minority teller charged that his report was locked in a safe with the ballots at the district miners' headquarters in the Ferguson Building, and that he could not get into read to the convention. Marraccini, however, admitted helping to tabulate the results announced by the majority members. These were as follows:

For President—Francis Feehan, 5,211; Michael Halapy, 4,627 1-2. Feehan's majority, 583 1-2.

For Vice President—Van Bitner (incumbent) 5,354; Charles Pritchard 3,913 1-2.—Bitner's majority, 1,441 1-2.

For Secretary-Treasurer—Timothy Donovan, 3,186; Robert Wood, 3,457; Martin Greely, 1,771; Harry Delieher, 915; Thomas Robertson, 434 1-2. Wood's majority over Donovan, 271.

International Board Member—George Dagger, 4,967; Alex Susner, 2,430 1-2; John Gammell, 1,295; Albert Anderson, 552 1-2. Dagger declared re-elected.

John S. Palin, with 2,130 votes, was declared elected district auditor.

The three highest for district tellers were: Michael Marraccini, 2,735; John Fagan, 2,676, and James Oates, 2,170.

For district board members (six to elect) the six highest were given as follows: F. P. Hanaway, 1,685; Jas. Charleton, 802; William Hargest, 1,535; John O'Leary, 1,443; Sidney Davis 725; William Teare, 200.

Assemblyman William Feeney of Charleroi was acting chairman of the convention when the report was presented.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Throughout Christendom today the thoughts of all will turn to this most hallowed of Christian holy days. The pious memory of the world's greatest tragedy will stir the emotions of men and direct their thoughts anew to the spiritual necessities of mankind.

The Lenten season, which has been preliminary to the cardinal event of Good Friday, is nearing its close. On Easter morn the celebration of the resurrection will be typified in the freshening of spring, and the world will turn in gladness with new hope and pleasure of living to the duties of another year of seedtime and harvest.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Roosevelt hammered Taft's record in a recent speech. He wouldn't have done that under any consideration four years ago.

The Colonel's policies by this time have attained such a development and such a variety that they would make good museum material if properly captured and tanned.

A good many people thought Richard Croker dead until he broke into print Thursday.

Taft has been declared in nearly all the places where Rooseveltians have claimed victory. So it goes.

Abe Martin asks what has become of the ole fashioned girl that wuz allus just goin' t' have some photos struck? She's here.

If the spring poets were only baseball umpires what a chance we would have to get vengeance.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The announcement of the death of 'Fiddling Bob,' Taylor, of Tennessee, orator, Governor, Senator and a royal good fellow, because he was a good fiddler, recalls the most unique political campaign I ever witnessed," said a valley newspaper man today. "Years ago, back in the eighties, I was working as a 'comp' on the Nashville Banner, when a gubernatorial campaign opened up. Robert Taylor, or 'Bob,' as he was called, was the logical Democratic candidate for Governor. He was a popular rising young politician, and a resident of Middle Tennessee, the Democratic stronghold. Now there was another Taylor boy, Alf, an older brother of Bob, who was a prominent lawyer up in East Tennessee, the Knoxville district, who was a Republican. In order to pull one over on the Democrats the Republicans held their convention first, and nominated Alf Taylor, for Governor thinking that would put an end to Bob's chances for the nomination. Nothing daunted, the Democrats at their convention promptly nominated Bob Taylor for Governor, and the campaign was on—brother against brother.

"It was a hilarious, good natured campaign. The two brothers stumped the State together, and made speeches from the same platform for their respective parties. The press called it the 'War of the Roses,' the emblem of the Republicans being red and that of the Democrats white. I saw both candidates in a big rally at Nashville, where both made speeches from the same hotel balcony. I attended a theatre that night where Joe Jefferson appeared in 'Rip Van Winkle.' The ladies in the audience showed their colors by wearing red or white, and the orchestra added to the gaiety of the occasion by playing alternately political airs affected by the two parties. When Joe Jefferson was called before the curtain he appeared wearing a red rose on one lapel of his coat and a white rose on the other, and the audience went wild. It was the most unique campaign in the annals of politics."

WE MUST REBUKE

TARIFF TINKERS

All that is wrong with business is that it is afraid to venture on new enterprises as long as there is danger of the protective barrier of the Tariff being broken down.

You men in business, in offices, following trades and the professions in the prosperous towns surrounding the great Metropolitan District of Pittsburgh know this. You know that the nation-wide power of this district, of which you are a part and to which you have contributed your share of brains and enterprise, was acquired under the beneficent protection of the Tariff. You know that the tariff has safeguarded your businesses and enabled you to develop home markets for your products and your work.

Don't Be Led Astray

In the face of this knowledge, are you going to be led astray by Strange Gods of Government and False Idols of Politics, or are you going to stand fast by the principles which have helped you—and your family to get where you are?

Free-Trade spells Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Disaster.

Remember the Wilson Bill!

A Protective Tariff means Peace and Plenty.

It's up to you to choose.

But in choosing keep your mind clear and your hand steady. Don't be deceived by fancy talk about theories of self-government which are so experimental in character as to constitute a menace to our welfare as individuals and as a nation.

Let Us Have Peace

For some years the country has struggled through a tariff tinkering period. Just now, when, under the wise leadership of our President, we are emerging from this spell of restless uncertainty and getting our feet in the ways of Peace and Progress, does it seem right to you that we should again let the nation be turned topsy-turvy to find out if certain wishful hopes may be realized, if certain personal ambitions may be gratified and useless revenges be wreaked?

Let your answer ring clear at the Primaries, April 13th.

Join in the state-wide movement for the re-election of President Taft and the endorsement of the Republican Party and help Pennsylvania show the rest of the states she is the Old Reliable as of yore.

Join the Big Taft Club

The Taft Club of Pittsburgh, a powerful organization of several thousand men of all occupations, urges you to go into your primaries next Saturday and for your own good and the material welfare of your family, your community and your nation, vote for those delegates from your congressional district to the National Republican Convention and from your legislative district to the State Convention, who are pledged to the support of President Taft.

Pick out the Taft delegates and vote for them.
If you want to join our club, write to W. T. Mossman, Secretary Taft Club of Pittsburgh, and say "Please enroll and publish my name as a vice-president of the Taft Club of Pittsburgh." Give your name, your occupation and your mailing address and add a few words of opinion.

WILL HOLD A BANQUET

Charleroi Business Men's Association Arrange Annual Affair

FAVORS CURB MARKET

Banquet affairs, the matter of equalizing the tax assessment, and the proposed curb market occupied the attention of the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their regular meeting Thursday night. It was arranged to hold the annual banquet of the association on next Friday night, April 12. Gov. J. K. Tener will probably be home on that date to attend the affair. Other guests will be invited, among them probably the county commissioners, the Washington county judges and other county officials, J. Denny O'Neil, an Allegheny county commissioner and some of the prominent railroad officials. It is expected that the banquet will be held at the Elks' Home. The executive committee, consisting of W. R. Gault, C. O. Frye, and John B. Schafer will have the arrangements for the affair in charge.

The Business Men's Association instructed the municipal committee to work conjunctively with council in securing a location for the proposed curb market. This market will be started just as soon as possible. Frank Bly, Dr. H. J. Repman, R. H. Rush, C. R. Perigrine and William Millikin are the members of the committee. Farmers have stated that they are interested and it is probable a meeting will be arranged with them by a committee.

The association took up the discussion of the more equitable assessment of taxes. A new plan is proposed which would require a new law, constituting a local board empowered to act as the board of appeals. Now the county commissioners act in that capacity all over the county. This is one matter that will probably be threshed out at the banquet to be held next Friday. If it is deemed advisable a new law will be urged.

Free Electric Show.

Through the combined efforts of the various Electric jobbers and manufacturers in Pittsburgh and vicinity and the West Penn Electric company a big free Electric show will be given at the Charleroi Basket Ball Hall beginning Monday, April 8 and running the entire week. This show has been given in both Connellsville and Greensburg and attracted thousands of people. This demonstration will give to the people of Charleroi and vicinity a chance to see electrical appliances practically demonstrated at absolutely no cost to the people. The hall will be a maze of electric lights as well as the streets leading to it. This requires an immense amount of work and a large force are now working on the construction of booths, equipments and etc. 209-11

Notice.

Bids will be received by the Borough Clerk for gathering, hauling and disposal of Borough garbage until Tuesday, April 16th. Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Committees Will Meet

County and District Sunday School Workers to Confer at Christian Church

For the purpose of going over plans for the Sunday School convention thus far perfected, the executive committee of the Washington County Sunday School Association will hold a meeting in Charleroi on Monday afternoon and evening.

The meetings will be held at the First Christian church, where supper will be taken by the county and district committees at 6 o'clock. The supper will be provided by the ladies of the Christian church.

It is expected that all members of the county committee will be here. From present plans the most successful convention ever held by the county association is indicated, and elaborate arrangements are necessary.

ARRANGE FOR SHOW

West Penn Electric Company to Show Uses of Electricity

TO CONTINUE ONE WEEK

Beginning next Monday and continuing until Saturday inclusive, an electrical show will be held by the West Penn Electric company at the Charleroi rink. All the latest electrical appliances of similar kind to those which attracted so much attention at the Pittsburgh Exposition last fall will be exhibited.

Edwin Mandeville of Connellsville was here this morning in the interests of the show, which will be free to the people. The use of various domestic appliances operated by electricity and the wonders of the age, which have their origin due to the inventive ability of some of the most noted workers with electricity are to be demonstrated.

Special representatives of the company from Connellsville will be here to conduct the show, which will be for the entire Monongahela valley.

INTEREST GROWING IN MARRON LECTURE

Interest is growing in the lecture for men to be given by John Marron, Esq., at Pittsburgh at School Hall next Thursday. The committee of the Knights of Columbus, which has arrangements for the affair in charge are working hard to make the affair a success. The lecture will be free to men and tickets of invitation are being distributed.

Mr. Marron is one of the leading civic workers of Pittsburgh. He is particularly well fitted to give a lecture on the subject given.

T. R. Comes to Uniontown.

MEMORABLE DAY AT CHURCHES

Solemn Services Are Held in Catholic and Some of Protestant Churches

Throughout Christendom today is being commemorated the great tragedy of Calvary. Catholic and Protestant churches are holding special services. In Charleroi the schools are closed and the banks are observing the day as a legal holiday.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church today the mass of the presanctified was celebrated. According to custom prayers were publicly said for all persons, because it was on this day that Christ died in atonement for the sins of the world. The unveiling of the cross and adoration by the people was a solemn ceremony this morning at 8 o'clock. Tonight at 8 o'clock the sermon of the passion will be delivered.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Episcopal church Good Friday was observed by morning prayer, litany and sermon, and this afternoon at 4 o'clock evening prayer will be said. At Christ Lutheran church services will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

On Holy Saturday will occur at St. Jerome's church the blessing of the paschal candle and the blessing of the baptismal waters, signifying the various prophecies. At the Episcopal church the sacrament of holy baptism will be administered in the church in the evening.

THOUSANDS ATTEND NEW STORE OPENING

Attracted by the beautiful interior of the store, by alluring music and by the offer of carnations or tulips to every visitor, between 4,000 and 5,000 persons including many from out of town attended the opening Thursday afternoon and evening of the new shoe house of Riggs & Stech, on McKean avenue. No sales were made Thursday. Twenty-eight hundred flowers were given as souvenirs and the supply was not sufficient to satisfy the demand. An orchestra of five pieces rendered music afternoon and evening. Riggs & Stech have prepared a beautiful store. They will handle a line of shoes made especially for them. At different times during the opening a quartet of young men rendered vocal selections to the accompaniment of the orchestra, which was greatly enjoyed by the big crowds in attendance. The new firm began doing business today.

Bazaar Two Days.

The Baptist church will hold an Easter bazaar Friday afternoon and Saturday in the store room at 517 Fallowfield avenue. Fancy work, aprons, etc., and home made candy and cakes will be sold. 208-43

O'Leary Not Parole Star

Elco Man Said to Have Broken Provisions Set by The Court

Constable W. S. Conway of Long Branch borough took Jerry O'Leary of Elco to Washington Thursday on a bench warrant issued out of the court of quarter sessions at the instance of District Attorney Richard G. Miller for breaking the provisions of the parole. He was paroled September 8, last and promised to refrain from drink for one year. He broke his promise and got drunk and "tore" things up in general in the river section.

Judge McIlvaine asked the prisoner if he had anything to say to justify his conduct and he replied that it was simply an old temptation and he could not resist it. The court ordered the sentence of last year carried out costs, a fine of $1 and three months to jail.

CORONER REPORTS

Investigates Death of Eighteen Persons During Month

TWO DIE IN CHARLEROI

The report of Coroner James T. Heffran for the month of March shows 18 sudden deaths. Of this number 11 are of American extraction, two of Slavish, two of Russian and one each of Swedish, Austrian and Polish. Of the whole number nine were married, seven were single one was divorced and another was a widower. Eight were killed in the coal mines, two were suicide, five died from natural causes, one from burns, one from poison and one from falling into a well. In the meantime the room filled up with the fluid. She came back and ignited another match which caused an explosion.

Robert I. Duval of Charleroi, aged 39, divorced, American, and a painter died in the Monessen General hospital from an attack of apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital from the Charleroi lockup unconscious.

FEEHAN ELECTED

Tabulation of Votes Show District President is Returned

ENTIRE TICKET ELECTED

After a most stormy session at the district convention of the United Mine Workers at Pittsburgh Thursday, the result of the referendum vote of the miners was announced, which gave President Francis Feehan a majority, as well as the balance of the candidates who were in accord with him and his policies. In other words, the entire Feehan ticket was elected. At times it was hard to preserve order, and proceedings were repeatedly interrupted.

The majority report of the referendum not signed by Tellers John Fagan and Thomas Kelly, declares Francis Feehan, re-elected district president by a majority of 583 1-2 votes. The minority report, is said, will declare Michael Halapy elected by 1,800 votes.

Michael Marraccini, minority teller charged that his report was locked in a safe with the ballots at the district miners' headquarters in the Ferguson Building, and that he could not get into read to the convention. Marraccini, however, admitted helping to tabulate the results announced by the majority members. These were as follows:

WILL HOLD
A BANQUETCharleroi Business
Men's Association Ar-
range Annual Affair

FAVORS CURB MARKET

Banquet affairs, the matter of equalizing the tax assessment, and the proposed curb market occupied the attention of the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their regular meeting Thursday night. It was arranged to hold the annual banquet of the association on next Friday night, April 12. Gov. J. K. Tener will probably be home on that date to attend the affair. Other guests will be invited, among them probably the county commissioners, the Washington county judges and other county officials, J. Denny O'Neil, an Allegheny county commissioner and some of the prominent railroad officials. It is expected that the banquet will be held at the Elks' Home. The executive committee, consisting of W. R. Gault, C. O. Frye, and John B. Schafer will have the arrangements for the affair in charge.

The Business Men's Association instructed the municipal committee to work conjunctively with council in securing a location for the proposed curb market. This market will be started just as soon as possible. Frank Bly, Dr. H. J. Repman, R. H. Rush, C. R. Perigrine and William Millikin are the members of the committee. Farmers have stated that they are interested and it is probable a meeting will be arranged with them by a committee.

The association took up the discussion of the more equitable assessment of taxes. A new plan is proposed which would require a new law, constituting a local board empowered to act as the board of appeals. Now the county commissioners act in that capacity all over the county. This is one matter that will probably be threshed out at the banquet to be held next Friday. If it is deemed advisable a new law will be urged.

Free Electric Show.

Through the combined efforts of the various Electric jobbers and manufacturers in Pittsburgh and vicinity and the West Penn Electric company a big free Electric show will be given at the Charleroi Basket Ball Hall beginning Monday, April 8 and running the entire week. This show has been given in both Connellsville and Greensburg and attracted thousands of people. This demonstration will give to the people of Charleroi and vicinity a chance to see electrical appliances practically demonstrated at absolutely no cost to the people. The hall will be a maze of electric lights as well as the streets leading to it. This requires an immense amount of work and a large force are now working on the construction of booths, equipments and etc. 209-t1

Edwin Mandeville of Connellsville was here this morning in the interests of the show, which will be free to the people. The use of various domestic appliances operated by electricity and the wonders of the age, which have their origin due to the inventive ability of some of the most noted workers with electricity are to be demonstrated.

Special representatives of the company from Connellsville will be here to conduct the show, which will be for the entire Monongahela valley.

INTEREST GROWING
IN MARRON LECTURE

Interest is growing in the lecture for men to be given by John Marron, Esq., of Pittsburgh at School Hall next Thursday. The committee of the Knights of Columbus, which has arrangements for the affair in charge are working hard to make the affair a success. The lecture will be free to men and tickets of invitation are being distributed.

Mr. Marron is one of the leading civic workers of Pittsburgh. He is particularly well fitted to give a lecture on the subject given.

MEMORABLE DAY
AT CHURCHESSolemn Services Are Held
in Catholic and Some of
Protestant Churches

Throughout Christendom today is being commemorated the great tragedy of Calvary. Catholic and Protestant churches are holding special services. In Charleroi the schools are closed and the banks are observing the day as a legal holiday.

At St. Jerome's Catholic church today the mass of the presanctified was celebrated. According to custom prayers were publicly said for all persons, because it was on this day that Christ died in atonement for the sins of the world. The unveiling of the cross and adoration by the people was a solemn ceremony this morning at 8 o'clock. Tonight at 8 o'clock the sermon of the passion will be delivered.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Episcopal church Good Friday was observed by morning prayer, litany and sermon, and this afternoon at 4 o'clock evening prayer will be said. At Christ Lutheran church services will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

On Holy Saturday will occur at St. Jerome's church the blessing of the Paschal candle and the blessing of the baptismal waters, signifying the various prophecies. At the Episcopal church the sacrament of holy baptism will be administered in the church in the evening.

The Court

Constable W. S. Conway of Long Branch borough took Jerry O'Leary of Elco to Washington Thursday on a bench warrant issued out of the court of quarter sessions at the instance of District Attorney Richard G. Miller for breaking the provisions of his parole. He was paroled September 8, last and promised to refrain from drink for one year. He broke his promise and got drunk and "tore" things up in general in the river section.

Judge McIlvaine asked the prisoner if he had anything to say to justify his conduct and he replied that it was simply an old temptation and he could not resist it. The court ordered the sentence of last year carried out costs, a fine of $1 and three months to jail.

Of the whole number nine were married, seven were single one was divorced and another was a widower. The occupation of nine was that of mining, there was one laborer, three farmers, one painter, one domestic and one foreman. There were 17 whites and one negro.

Two of the deaths were in Charleroi. Anna Krivenick, aged 17, of Charleroi, of Slavish extraction and a domestic, died at the Monessen Charleroi hospital from burns, March 7. In the meantime the room filled up with the fluid. She came back and ignited another match which caused an explosion.

Robert I. Duvall of Charleroi, aged 39, divorced, American, and a painter died in the Monessen General hospital from an attack of apoplexy. He was taken to the hospital from the Charleroi lockup unconscious.

ENTIRE TICKET ELECTED

After a most stormy session at the district convention of the United Mine Workers at Pittsburgh Thursday, the result of the referendum vote of the miners was announced, which gave President Francis Feehan a majority, as well as the balance of the candidates who were in accord with him and his policies. In other words, the entire Feehan ticket was elected. At times it was hard to preserve order, and proceedings were repeatedly interrupted.

The majority report of the referendum not signed by Tellers John Fagan and Thomas Kelly, declares Francis Feehan, re-elected district president by a majority of 583 1-2 votes. The minority report, is said, will declare Michael Halapy elected by 1,890 votes.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Throughout Christendom today the thoughts of all will turn to this most hallowed of Christian holy days. The pious memory of the world's greatest tragedy will stir the emotions of men and direct their thoughts anew to the spiritual necessities of mankind.

The Lenten season, which has been preliminary to the cardinal event of Good Friday, is nearing its close. On Easter morn the celebration of the resurrection will be typified in the freshening of spring, and the world will turn in gladness with new hope and pleasure of living to the duties of another year of seedtime and harvest.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Roosevelt hammered Taft's record in a recent speech. He wouldn't have done that under any consideration four years ago.

The Colonel's policies by this time have attained such a development and such a variety that they would make good museum material if properly captured and tanned.

A good many people thought Richard Croker dead until he broke into print Thursday.

Taft has been declared in nearly all the places where Rooseveltians have claimed victory. So it goes.

Abe Martin asks what has become of the old fashioned girl that wuz alius just goin' t' have some photos struck? She's here.

If the spring poets were only baseball umpires what a chance we would have to get vengeance.

Baseball is just a few days off. And still the most of us are wearing our winter underwear.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"The announcement of the death of 'Fiddling Bob,' Taylor, of Tennessee, orator, Governor, Senator and a royal good fellow, because he was a good fiddler, recalls the most unique political campaign I ever witnessed," said a valley newspaper man today. "Years ago, back in the eighties, I was working as a 'comp' on the Nashville Banner, when a gubernatorial campaign opened up. Robert Taylor, or 'Bob,' as he was called, was the logical Democratic candidate for Governor. He was a popular rising young politician, and a resident of Middle Tennessee, the Democratic stronghold. Now there was another Taylor boy, Alf, an older brother of Bob, who was a prominent lawyer up in East Tennessee, the Knoxville district, who was a Republican. In order to pull one over on the Democrats the Republicans held their convention first, and nominated Alf Taylor, for Governor thinking that would put an end to Bob's chances for the nomination. Nothing daunted, the Democrats at their convention promptly nominated Bob Taylor for Governor, and the campaign was on—brother against brother.

"It was a hilarious, good natured campaign. The two brothers stumped the State together, and made speeches from the same platform for their respective parties. The press called it the 'War of the Roses,' the emblem of the Republicans being red and that of the Democrats white. I saw both candidates in a big rally at Nashville, where both made speeches from the same hotel balcony. I attended a theatre that night where Joe Jefferson appeared in 'Rip Van Winkle.' The ladies in the audience showed their colors by wearing red or white roses, and the orchestra added to the gaiety of the occasion by playing alternately political airs affected by the two parties. When Joe Jefferson was called before the curtain he appeared wearing a red rose on one lapel of his coat and a white rose on the other, and the audience went wild. It was the most unique campaign in the annals of politics."

TARIFF TINKERS

All that is wrong with business is that it is afraid to venture on new enterprises as long as there is danger of the protective barrier of the Tariff being broken down.

You men in business, in offices, following trades and the professions in the prosperous towns surrounding the great Metropolitan District of Pittsburgh know this. You know that the nation-wide power of this district, of which you are a part and to which you have contributed your share of brains and enterprise, was acquired under the beneficent protection of the Tariff. You know that the tariff has safeguarded your businesses and enabled you to develop home markets for your products and your work.

Don't Be Led Astray

In the face of this knowledge are you going to be led astray by Strange Gods of Government and False Idols of Politics, or are you going to stand fast by the principles which have helped you and your family to get where you are?

Free-Trade spells Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Disaster.

Remember the Wilson Bill!

A Protective Tariff means Peace and Plenty.

It's up to you to choose.

But in choosing keep your mind clear and your hand steady. Don't be deceived by fancy talk about theories of self-government which are so experimental in character as to constitute a menace to our welfare as individuals and as a nation.

Let Us Have Peace

For some years the country has struggled through a tariff tinkering period. Just now, when under the wise leadership of our President, we are emerging from this spell of restless uncertainty and getting our feet in the ways of Peace and Progress, does it seem right to you that we should again let the nation be turned topsy-turvy to find out if certain wistful hopes may be realized, if certain personal ambitions may be gratified and useless revenges be wreaked?

Let your answer ring clear at the Primaries, April 13th.

Join in the state-wide movement for the re-election of President Taft and the endorsement of the Republican Party and help Pennsylvania show the rest of the states she is the Old Reliable as of yore.

Join the Big Taft Club

The Taft Club, of Pittsburgh, a powerful organization of several thousand men of all occupations, urges you to go into your primaries next Saturday and for your own good and the material welfare of your family, your community and your nation, vote for those delegates from your congressional district to the National Republican Convention and from your legislative district to the State Convention, who are pledged to the support of President Taft.

Pick out the Taft delegates and vote for them. If you want to join our club, write to W. T. Mossman, Secretary Taft Club of Pittsburgh, and say "Please enroll and publish my name as a vice-president of the Taft Club of Pittsburgh."
